Dear Mr. Tenet:

This letter formally acknowledges that the Publications Review Board has completed its review of your manuscript entitled "At the Center of the Storm," including the galley proofs that you provided to us on 9 March 2007 and the material that you had changed in accordance with all of our previous communications (with the exception noted below). The Board has confirmed that you have made all of the required changes to your manuscript that we had previously communicated to you (with the exception noted below). The Board has determined that the version of your manuscript that reflects all of these required changes does not contain classified information and, therefore, the Board has approved this version of your manuscript for publication.

The Board has also completed its review of your "dedication" and "acknowledgements" sections and determined that they do not contain classified information. The Board has approved these sections of your manuscript for publication.

As we have previously advised you, if you add material to or change the text the Board has approved for publication, you must submit these additions or changes to us before giving them to your publisher or anyone else. In such a case, please mark or otherwise clearly indicate the new material so we can expedite our review. With respect to the changes agreed to via telephone on 14 March, please provide those revised pages to the Board.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions or if we can be of further assistance.

Sincerely,

A large, empty rectangular box intended for a signature.

Chairman, Publications Review Board
